Lillian Valley School is a private, non-profit Christian-based school that relies solely upon various grants, donations and other forms of financial support to facilitate its mission. Although we do not charge tuition, we anticipate parents/guardians will willingly give of their time, talent and/or treasure to insure their child's education occurs in a safe, wholesome learning environment. Volunteering your time and/or talent also provides a meaningful affirmation to your child of the importance of both community and the value of education, two of Lillian Valley School's primary objectives. Please consider the following opportunities and indicate those areas you would assist Lillian Valley School.

_____ Chaperone Field Trips/ Dances

_____ Drive for Field Trips/ Dances
